

“Guaranteeing children’s rights to participate in all fields of life and measuring progress in promoting child participation”

Presentation of Child Participation Assessment Tool by Council of Europe

March 23rd Rome

Italian Committee for UNICEF, Auditorium UNICEF

Rome - Via Palestro 68

Public section

23rd March

10.30 Registration of participants

11.00 Opening and welcome

Paolo Rozera, Executive director of Italian Committee for UNICEF

Fabrizio Petri, Minister plenipotentiary President of Interministerial Committee for Human Rights

Alessandra Bernardon, Office of the National Authority for Childhood and Adolescence

Representative of Children’s Rights Division – CoE

11.30 Children’s right to participate: Introduction to the Child Participation Assessment Process

Presentation on the meaning of art. 12 of UNCRC and General Comment n.12 on the children’s right to participate

Gerison Lansdown, international children's rights consultant and advocate

Presentation of Council of Europe work on children’s participation, including three policy reviews, development of the Recommendation (2012)2 on child and youth participation

Anne Crowley, Council of Europe consultant

12.10 Presentation of state of play of children participation in Italy

Cristiana Carletti, Professor of International Law-Roma Tre University/Legal expert

12.30 The impact of children participating in decision-making: two evidence-based case studies

Anne Crowley - Gerison Lansdown

- a European case Study

- a global study

13.00 Council of Europe Child Participation Assessment Tool

Introduction to the Child Participation Assessment Tool (CPAT)

Anne Crowley

13.20 Closing remarks